It's all happening at The Rep !

It has been a very busy summer at the Repertory Theatre. Following our major fundraising initiative last season, and the receipt of a large donation from Stoke on Trent City Council's Community Investment Fund, we have been able to spend the summer installing energy efficient LED lighting throughout the majority of the theatre and refurbishing the auditorium with new seating and carpeting. The finished results look absolutely wonderful and will provide our audiences with a superb level of comfort in which to sit back, relax and enjoy many of the fantastic shows and concerts which we have scheduled for the new season.

In addition to the five Repertory Players' productions, we have several of our regular visiting companies returning with a range of dance shows, major musicals and, of course, pantomime, and we are continuing to expand our professional one night concerts, which, over the next few months, will include the welcome return of The Syd Lawrence Orchestra, Talon, everyone's favourite school inspector, Gervase Phinn, local legend Gordon Hendricks and the award-winning Manchester Inspirational Voices Choir.

A particularly exciting new inclusion in our programme this year is the Harding Trust Piano Masters Series which will see five concerts performed by pianists of truly international star status.

So, whether you love musicals, dance, drama or live music, you are sure to find some great entertainment at the Rep this autumn and winter.

BEN HUR

Written by PATRIC BARLOW
based on the novel by General 'Lew' Wallace

Based on one of the best-selling books of the 19th century and the Academy Award-winning film of grand proportion, comes the stage adaptation.

The story follows an amateur theatre troupe as they produce the massive tale of the fictional Jewish prince and merchant Judah Ben-Hur. He falls to galley slave and rises to champion charioteer within Jerusalem during the life of Jesus Christ, while the actors struggle along through the piece as rivalries form and offstage romances interfere.

Complete with chariot race, sea battle, and stage combat, Patrick Barlow weaves his compressed style popularised by The 39 Steps into one of the largest stories ever told.

"Patrick Barlow's small-scale take on this epic tale is a Palpable hit."
Evening Standard

Christmas day will never be the same again....

As the drinks flow and the obligatory games intensify, family resentments rise and relationships are pulled apart with a bang – like oh so many Christmas crackers.

RULES FOR LIVING

BY SAM HOLDCROFT

Tuesday 4th - Saturday 8th Dec 2018

performance times 7.30pm Sat Matinée 2.30pm

Everyone creates their own coping strategies or rules for living. But what happens when an extended family gathers for a traditional Christmas dinner, and each of them rigidly follows those rules, rigidly.

As long-held mechanisms for survival are laid bare, even Mum, who's been preparing this lunch since last January, becomes embroiled. Time-honoured rivalries and resentments will out.
Accusations fly, relationships deconstruct, the rules take over…

David Hare's play is about the state of the nation and matters of the heart, as two former lovers with differing political views are reunited years after their affair.

SKYLIGHT

By David Hare

Tuesday 5th - Saturday 9th Feb 2019

performance times 7.30pm Sat Matinée 2.30pm

Broadway and the West End applauded this intensely clear-sighted and compassionate play about a love affair.

On a chilly night in East London, schoolteacher Kyra Hollis receives an unexpected visit from Tom Sergeant, Kyra's one-time boss and long-time lover. After the painful (and unresolved) dissolution of Tom and Kyra's relationship, the pair have pulled away from each other physically, emotionally, and ideologically, as Tom continues to focus on his business ventures and Kyra donates her time to teaching the underprivileged. Tom and Kyra grapple with each other, moving between tender passion and vicious political polemics, as the night darkens and the lines between past and present begin to blur. Skylight is a complex, thought-provoking, and remarkably timeless drama about power, politics, and passion.

Stoke Youth

THE MADNESS MUSICAL

Based in 1980's Camden Town, Our House tells the story of London lad Joe Casey, who, on the night of his sixteenth birthday, takes Sarah, the girl of his dreams, out on their first date. In an effort to impress her with bravado, he breaks into a building site overlooking his home on Casey Street, which is owned by Mister Pressman, a high-end property developer. The police turn up, at which point Joe's life splits into two: the Good Joe, who stays to help, and Bad Joe, who flees.

Featuring The Music of Madness including House of Fun, Baggy Trousers, Driving In My Car, It Must Be Love and of course Our House, this brilliant British musical is not to be missed and was another local first from Stoke Youth Musical Theatre Company.

SWEENEY TODD
THE DEMON BARBER OF FLEET STREET

Box Office : 01782 321666
Buy Online : www.fivetownstheatre.org.uk

(Booking fees may apply)

Sweeney Todd has become a bloody, worldwide success since being awarded 8 Tony's, one of them for Best Musical, for its Broadway premiere. Stephen Sondheim and Hugh Wheeler (A Little Night Music, Pacific Overtures) crafted a tasty, thrilling, theatrical treat with Sweeney Todd that has simultaneously shocked, awed, and delighted audiences across the world. An infamous tale, Sweeney Todd, an unjustly exiled barber, returns to 19th century London seeking vengeance against the lecherous judge who framed him and ravaged his young wife. Theroad to revenge leads Todd to Mrs. Lovett, a resourceful proprietress of a failing pie shop, above which he opens a new barber practice. Mrs. Lovett's luck sharply shifts when Todd's thirst for blood inspires the integration of an ingredient into her meat pies that has the people of London lining up, and the carnage has only just begun.
