Welcome to the new season at The Rep

Our autumn and winter programme promises to be more varied than ever.

After a summer which has been less than glorious the Repertory Players are starting with a production which really is glorious, Peter Quilter's wonderful play, Glorious, which is based upon the true story of American socialite Florence Foster Jenkins' determined efforts to share her unique singing talents with the world at large. This will be followed in December with a seasonal Christmas comedy drama and in February with the modern comedy God of Carnage.

Details of all of the Players' 2023 - 24 programme can be found on our website, and information regarding season tickets for all five of the Players' productions, along with an application form, can be found on page 10 of this brochure. (Season tickets make great Christmas and birthday presents for those 'hard to buy for' friends and relatives!)

In addition to the Players' shows we have a fantastic range of entertainment scheduled from our visiting companies, starting with a brand new musical, GRUeSOMe, to be followed by two of the best-loved musicals, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat and Les Misérables (school edition), The Cracked Nut, (a modern interpretation of The Nutcracker ballet, a half-term spooktacular from Scarlet Theatre, followed by two Christmas productions from Scarlet Theatre and The Young Rep and, bringing 2023 to a close, the merry mayhem of panto.

Add in the classical concerts and our regular Christmas visitors Talon and the Syd Lawrence Orchestra, and it all adds up to a programme of events with something for everyone.

See you soon!

GLORIOUS!

The true story of Florence Foster Jenkins, the worst singer in the world.

by PETER QUILTER

10 ~ 14 October 2023

7.30pm Nightly & 2.30pm Saturday Matinée

“A delightful and blissfully funny play that generates a rare glow of warmth.” – Daily Telegraph

In 1940s New York, the performer who everyone wanted to see live was Florence Foster Jenkins, an enthusiastic soprano whose pitch was far from perfect. Known as ‘The First Lady of the sliding scale,’ she warbled and screeched her way through the evening to an audience who mostly fell about with laughter. But this delusional and joyously happy woman paid little attention to her critics, instead she was surrounded by a circle of devoted friends who were almost as eccentric as she was.

The play spins from Florence’s charity recitals and extravagant balls, through to her bizarre recording sessions. Will Florence ultimately triumph at her career-defining moment on stage at the Carnegie Hall?

Join us for this hilarious and heart-warming comedy to find out.

This amateur production of ‘Glorious!: The True Story of Florence Foster Jenkins, the Worst Singer in the World’ is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals Ltd. on behalf of Samuel French Ltd. www.concordtheatricals.co.uk

But Once A Year

By Falkland L. Cary

5 ~ 9 December 2023

7.30pm Nightly & 2.30pm Saturday Matinée

A Christmas comedy drama to get you in the festive spirit.

Mrs Meldon is entertaining her usual party for the Christmas week — the pleasure is not, however, unalloyed. With the difficult Aunt Topsey and easily offended Uncle Ned among the invited guests, the Yuletide celebrations are likely to be anything but festive.

Throw in an unexpected visitor and a love triangle involving Mrs Meldon's two daughters and Tony Martley, a young artist, and the stage is set for a Christmas comedy full of drama.

This amateur production of 'But Once A Year' is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals Ltd. on behalf of

“Satire at its best”

What happens when two sets of parents meet up to deal with the unruly behaviour of their children? Perhaps you'd imagine a calm and rational debate between grown-ups about the need to teach kids how to behave properly — you'd be wrong! What ensues is a hysterical night of name-calling, tantrums and tears before bedtime. Boys will be boys, but the adults are usually worse — much worse.

God Of Carnage won the 2008 Olivier Award for Best Comedy and the 2009 Tony Award for Best Play.

Don't miss this satirical comedy, whose ferocious title paradoxically reinforces the subtly furibund fun.

GRUESOME

The very name of Jack The Ripper still conjures trepidation and morbid curiosity, how a man could be so base yet elude capture in the midst of the densely populated streets of Whitechapel in the City of London.

This new and visually powerful show brings to life the hysteria and panic created in the capital, the fear generated by the heinous crimes of this most notorious of serial killers, Jack The Ripper. Crimes so evil they are forever indelibly carved into history.

Music based on the 2008 album Berner Street by Tony McKenzie and Alan Bruce has been reimagined and expanded with the creation of three new pieces to complete GRUESOME creating a conduit to a point in time where the past links to the present.

This production is not suitable for younger persons.

Make your way along the winding paths that lead
through the enchanted woods inside The Rep Theatre and meet some of Grimm's most famous characters including Hansel and Gretel, Rapunzel, Little Red, The Frog King, Rumpelstiltskin and
The Elves and The Shoemaker.

Before Disney came along and dipped these stories in sugar, wrapped them in bubblegum and presented them in a shiny box with a bow, Grimm's tales were a collection of folklore,
mystery, daring romance and adventurous quests with characters of grit, comedy, heroism, evil and truth...

This immersive adventure for all the family will inspire imaginations and allow both young and old to share in the delight and interact with the stories
as they unfold before your eyes!

He's back!

This Christmas, discover the fantastical world of Charles Dickens and the gaslit streets of Victorian London.

Returning to The Rep Theatre, Stoke, Scarlet Theatre are back with their 5th outing of Dickens' famous ghost story, A Christmas Carol.

Arguably the second most famous Christmas story ever told, A Christmas Carol remains a beloved festive favourite 180 years after it was first published.

Join us as we sneer at Scrooge, party with the Fezziwigs, raise a toast with the Cratchits and experience spine-tingling close-ups with the Spirits of Christmas on this journey of redemption through the past, the present and the future.

A Christmas Carol fills the auditorium to the brim with mince pies, music and merriment as we revel in this one-of-a-kind, immersive, theatrical spectacle.

Let the magic of a Victorian Christmas adventure kick-start your own festive season!
