Welcome to Autumn and Winter 2024 at Stoke Repertory Theatre

After a brief summer break, the Rep is launching into an incredibly busy autumn and winter with a wide-ranging programme of drama, dance and music with something for everyone to enjoy.

The Repertory Players have selected five fantastic plays for their 2024 - 25 season, and have a great money-saving offer with their season ticket package which enables you to see all five plays for only £60, details of which can be found on our website.

In addition to drama from the Players, we have a sprinkling of Christmas magic from The Young Rep with their production of The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe and lots of seasonal musical cheer from the Staffordshire Choir Association, the Staffordshire Show Choir and The Syd Lawrence Orchestra, all of which should get your toes tapping all the way to Christmas.

For classical music lovers, we are delighted to be hosting, once again, The Harding Trust Piano Masters series of concerts, giving audiences the opportunity to hear world-class pianists right here in the city.

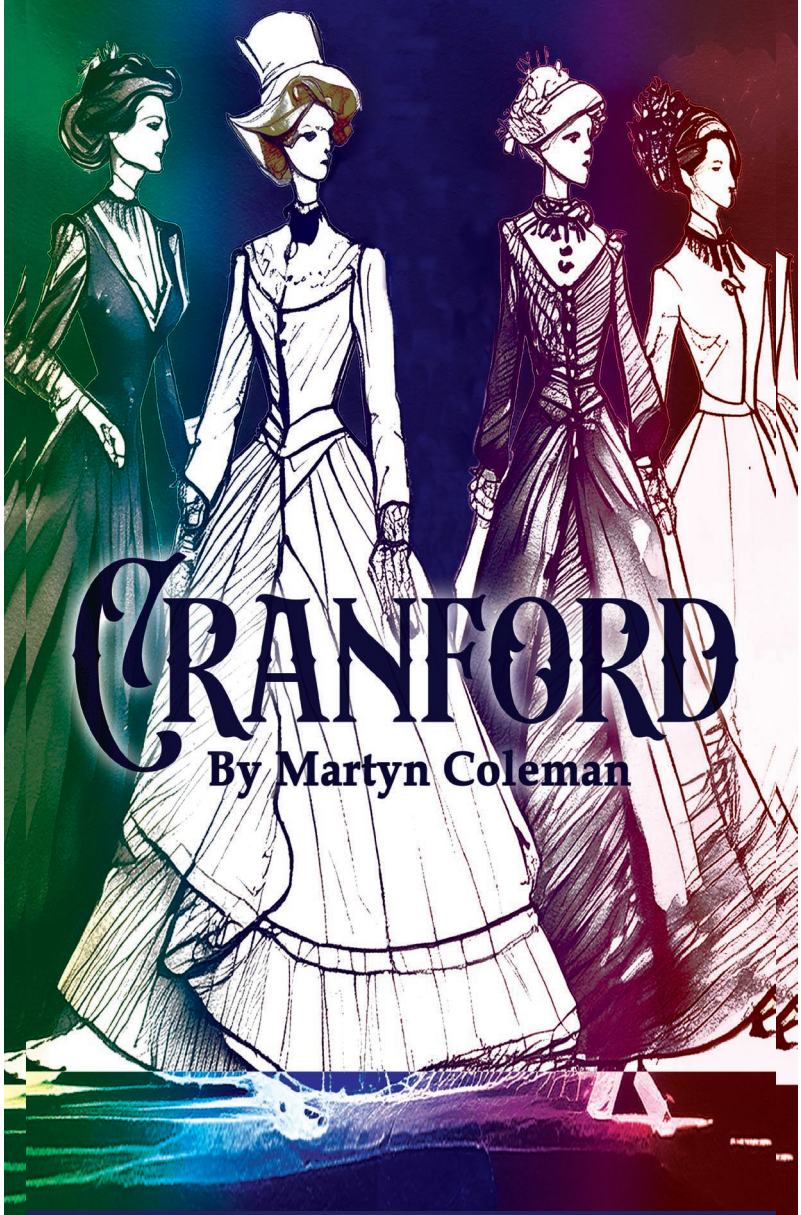

Completing our selection box of entertainment treats, we have musicals to suit all tastes and ages, before launching into the New Year with panto (which this year is Jack and the Beanstalk).

It's going to be busy and it's going to be fun, so we hope you'll be coming to join in and look forward to welcoming you very soon.

8~12 October 2024

7.30pm Nightly & 2.30pm Saturday Matinée

Where every cup of tea tells a story...

Step into the quaint streets of Cranford, a nineteenth century market town where the whispers of gossip are as frequent as the chime of the church bell. Join us as we bring to life the charming and eccentric characters of Elizabeth Gaskell's beloved novel, and the celebrated BBC TV series, adapted for the stage by Martyn Coleman.

Experience the trials and triumphs of Miss Matty and her companions, as they navigate through a world where social etiquette and tea-drinking are the pillars of daily life. Yet, beneath the genteel surface, Cranford hides tales of financial woes, unexpected romance and the heart-warming resilience of its residents.

7:30pm Nightly & 2:30pm Saturday Matinée

A scathing satire of social climbing and suburban snobbery.

Join us for a whirlwind of Christmas Eves in Alan Ayckbourn's Absurd Person Singular. Peek into three kitchens, where three couples, each with their own quirks, navigate the holiday season's highs and lows.

Last Christmas, the Hopcroft's ambitions soar as high as their Christmas tree, with a party that is equal parts merry and manipulative. This Christmas, at the Jackson's, a fraying marriage and a boisterous dog set the stage for holiday pandemonium. Next Christmas, the Brewster-Wright's stately home becomes the backdrop for a festive fiasco, courtesy of the uninvited Hopcrofts.

Ayckbourn weaves comedy and calamity with a touch of the unexpected, ensuring a night of theatre that is as thought-provoking as it is entertaining.

Don't miss out on a holiday spectacle where the absurd is the norm and the laughter is as abundant as the Christmas spirit.

In a world of secrets and betrayal, one small lie can set off a treacherous journey into the depths of deceit.

As twilight descends upon the Caplan's elegant country abode, a whisper of intrigue unfurls among a gathering of women. Their post-dinner musings on a radio drama – The Sleeping Dog – ignites a flame of curiosity and becomes a mirror reflecting their thoughts on truth's elusive nature.

Joined by their male counterparts – Titans of the publishing world – their dialogue weaves a tapestry of confessions, each revelation more piercing than the last. What truth lies buried in the death of Robert Caplan's brother, and what shadows linger behind the theft of company riches?

Step into the enchanted world of Broadway's classic, Disney's Beauty and the Beast, an international sensation that has been produced in 37 countries worldwide. Based on the Academy Award-winning animated feature, the stage version includes all of the wonderful songs written by Alan Menken and the late Howard Ashman, along with new songs by Mr. Menken and Tim Rice. The original Broadway production ran for over thirteen years and was nominated for nine Tony Awards, including Best Musical.

The classic story tells of Belle, a young woman in a provincial town, and the Beast, who is really a young prince trapped under the spell of an enchantress. If the Beast can learn to love and be loved, the curse will end and he will be transformed into his former self. But time is running out. If the Beast does not learn his lesson soon, he and his household will be doomed for all eternity.

SWEENEY TODD is a dark and witty musical tale of love, murder and revenge set against the backdrop of 19th century London. The musical has become a tasty, thrilling, theatrical treat which has simultaneously shocked, awed and delighted audiences across the world.

In this infamous tale, Sweeney Todd, an unjustly exiled barber, returns to nineteenth century London, seeking vengeance against the lecherous judge who framed him and ravaged his young wife. The road to revenge leads Todd to Mrs Lovett, a resourceful proprietress of a failing pie shop, above which, he opens a new barber practice. Mrs Lovett's luck sharply shifts when Todd's thirst for blood inspires the integration of an ingredient into her meat pies that has the people of London lining up ... and the carnage has only just begun!

THE ADDAMS FAMILY, a comical feast that embraces the wackiness in every family, features an original story and it's every father's nightmare: Wednesday Addams, the ultimate princess of darkness, has grown up and fallen in love with a sweet, smart young man from a respectable family– a man her parents have never met. And if that wasn't upsetting enough, Wednesday confides in her father and begs him not to tell her mother. Now, Gomez Addams must do something he's never done before– keep a secret from his beloved wife, Morticia. Everything will change for the whole family on the fateful night they host a dinner for Wednesday's "normal" boyfriend and his parents.

Follow Peter, Susan, Edmund and Lucy as they are uprooted and evacuated from their London home; torn apart by The Blitz, to Professor Kirke's rambling old country house where an innocent game of hide and seek takes them through a mysterious wardrobe into the enchanted realm of the White Witch and her endless winter.

This immersive new adaptation; steeped in theatrics, astounding dramatic techniques and Turkish Delight temptation is a surefire Christmas hit for all ages!
